EmpXtrack, A Leading Web-Based Global HR Software Launches It's New Partnership Program

Sept 23rd, 2011(India)

Empxtrack, a web-based Human Resource and Talent Management System, is offering Channel Partnership to organizations around the globe. It is currently offering two forms of partnering opportunities: Referral Partners and Reseller Partners.

According to Tushar Bhatia, President Saigun Technologies and Chief Architect of EmpXtrack, "Partners can provide local customer support as also client support which we believe is extremely important in HCM applications. There are many companies which are automating their operations for the first time and statutory compliance is an important parameter for them. Our partners can hand hold them in a successful implementation, training and support activities."
